RAID ON IN EARNEST.

Chicago, Jan. 8.—The long promised aid on the major leagues for baseball alent has begun in earnest by the talent has begun in earnest by the Federal league, according to Joe Tinker, manager of the Chicago club, who left tonight on a trip which he he says will take him to the homes of many players who have won fame in the National and American leagues.

Otto Knabe of the Baltimore and Mordecai Brown of the St. Louis clubs soon will start on similar pilgrimages, Tinker said. Tinker refused to name any of the players he intends to visit or to say when or where his first stop would be. It was reported he would get the signature of Clarence Hendricks to a contract, Tinker seld.
